

Please don't change anything about the do not call list, except to make the laws stronger. I don't like getting their calls. If I want something, I don't need a phone call asking me if I want it or not !! I get enough junk mail about these things in the mail. Why do I want to get phone calls about them too?